72 George Street
Sydney 8th July 1828.

Barnet Levy
Sir

From Papers of recent date from Sydney

I think you have been told from respecting his being Hya to land - M. U.

M. J. Levy informs us that

In reply to your letter of the 25th June respecting the Authority under which I hold the Land on the South Head Road, I beg to enclose Copies of transfers from Jones to Foreman and from Foreman to me, also a copy of letter from Jones to the late Mr. Oxley.

I here beg to state that when the late Surveyor General understood that I was Building on the ground he ordered Mr.
Haddle to measure the same to show my boundaries.

I have the Honor to be
Sir
Your Most Obedient
And very Humble Servant

To the Honorable
Alex^r M^r Leary
Colonial Secretary
J. G. J.
