

Robin, eldest son of William (Robin) and Violet, his wife Mary (Molly) and their family returned to the Mountains shortly after Gordon's death in 1970. Even now, 91 years after the first Breakspear family moved to Glenbrook, they are still represented in the Mountains by Robin and Molly's children, granddaughters and great granddaughters. One granddaughter, Brianna and her husband, David are raising their two daughters in Glenbrook, only minutes from the site of the original family home.

Breakspear's home on the corner of Ross and Cross Streets, Glenbrook

---

---